

Judson Collins Camp & Retreat Center overlooks Wamplers Lake in Onsted, about 30 miles southwest of Ann Arbor in Michigan's Irish Hills. Enjoy 240 acres of beautiful wooded grounds, sunsets on the lake, accommodating facilities, and caring staff who want to engage you in our mission – "Discover. Grow. Serve."

OUR RETREAT LODGES, dorms and cabins host approximately 180 beds during the summer (May-September), and 96 during our second season (October-April). Your meals are served in our spacious dining room.

SEASONAL ACTIVITIES include beachfront sports on Wamplers Lake, such as swimming, canoes, kayaks and fishing, plus low ropes course, high ropes course, indoor climbing wall, hiking trails, sports field, basketball court, farm tours, tractor rides, and more.

Meeting Your Needs

Judson Collins provides year-round opportunities for groups of all types, sizes and ages. The perfect venue for you:

- Corporate, board and committee retreats
- Family reunions and grad parties
- Weddings and wedding receptions
- Crafting, quilting and scrapbooking retreats
- Scouts, churches, school groups (including choir/band) and home-school organizations wanting to enjoy the outdoors
- Office getaways, Pastoral retreats, brainstorming retreats and informal business meetings
- Team-building activities, outdoor education, youth summer camps and Eagle Scout projects.

Judson Collins Camp & Retreat Center is part of the Michigan Area United Methodist Camping family. No church affiliation is required.
